

FARMER JASON PLOWS NEW GROUND ON "ROCKIN' IN THE FOREST WITH FARMER JASON" CD

LOS ANGELES TIMES

Music critic Ann Powers names 'Rockin' In The Forest' to 2006 "Best Of" list.

PARENTING

"Rousing songs about forest critters, by a former rock singer, encourage tykes to exercise their muscles and educate their minds."

NEW YORK MAGAZINE (Rating 10 out of 10)

"Each song is different and has a captivating story to keep children's attention and educate at the same time. The introductions to the songs add some insight, too. It's catchy, clever, funny, musically interesting, and definitely danceworthy."

ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

"Between toe-tappin' tunes, Jason's immensely cheerful, eco-friendly chats ('Wow, what a cool word that is — marsupial!!') will make parents feel quite virtuous about cranking up the volume."

THE LOVELY MRS. DAVIS (Parents Blog)

"...Rockin' In The Forest is smart, energetic, musically distinct, and surprisingly instructive. It strikes a balance in its appeal to both children and parents, and the grown-ups can also take pleasure in knowing Farmer Jason's punk rock alter-ego."

AMAZON

"Incorporating jazz, bluegrass, Burt Bacharach-style horns, ouds, and fiddles, Farmer Jason scatters country across his disc like seeds — and there's never a shortage of sunshine."

PARENTS EXPRESS

"Children and adults enjoy this punk rock preschool music, which has gained Farmer Jason even more international acclaim than his adult music!"

LA DAILY NEWS

"The man's the real deal, and his music will make anyone grin from ear to ear...The ode to a favorite bottom dweller, 'Catfish Song,' is an instant classic."

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

"...Ringenberg has a knack for getting kids' attention with tunes such as 'Punk Rock Skunk' and 'Opossum In A Pocket'...highly entertaining and even educational for citybound kids."
